Harrington's community cats need your help. Volunteers are needed to help with trapping and colony caretaking. City Hall is collecting monetary donations along with gently used towels, newspapers, and cans of tuna, sardines, or cat food with a strong odor. To volunteer your time or to report free roaming cats, please call Tom Carroll, Code Enforcement Officer, at (302) 398-4428.

Please visit the City of Harrington website at <http://harrington.delaware.gov> for more information about this program.
