

CITY OF HARRINGTON

PROCLAMATION

Madison Peterman's Random Acts of Kindness Day
March 25, 2015

WHEREAS, every person, no matter how young or how small, has the ability to make a difference in our community and our world; and

WHEREAS, through random acts of kindness, individuals can instill a sense of goodwill in a community and promote healthy behaviors and positive dynamics; and

WHEREAS, teaching youths that they can make a difference through random acts of kindness cultivates caring, kindness, and compassion within them and the community; and

WHEREAS, at the young age of nine, Madison Peterman had already spent countless hours volunteering and performing quiet acts of kindness; and

WHEREAS, after losing Madison to a vehicle accident in 2009, her parents, Carrie and Scott Peterman, decided to celebrate her life by encouraging the community to perform random acts of kindness on her birthday, March 25.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anthony R. Moyer, Mayor of the City of Harrington, do hereby proclaim March 25, 2015, as Madison Peterman's Random Acts of Kindness Day in the City of Harrington and urge all citizens to celebrate Madison's life of giving by sharing a kind word or deed with a neighbor, friend, or stranger and encouraging youths to find the joy in performing random acts of kindness.

Anthony R. Moyer, Mayor

Signed the 16th day of March, 2015.
