

CITY OF HARRINGTON

PROCLAMATION
National Library Week
April 8-14, 2018

WHEREAS, libraries are not just about what they have for people, but what they do for and with people; and

WHEREAS, libraries have long served as trusted and treasured institutions, and library workers and librarians fuel efforts to better their communities, campuses, and schools; and

WHEREAS, librarians are leaders in their institutions and organizations, in their communities, in the nation, and in the world; and

WHEREAS, librarians continue to lead the way in leveling the playing field for all who seek information and access to technologies; and

WHEREAS, libraries and librarians look beyond their traditional roles and provide transformative opportunities for education, employment, entrepreneurship, empowerment, and engagement, as well new services that connect closely with patrons' needs; and

WHEREAS, libraries and librarians lead their communities in innovation, providing STEAM programming, Makerspaces, and access and training for new technologies; and

WHEREAS, libraries are pioneers supporting democracy and effecting social change, with a commitment to providing equitable access to information for all library users regardless of race, ethnicity, creed, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or socio-economic status; and

WHEREAS, libraries lead in working with diverse communities, including people of color, immigrants, and people with disabilities, offering services and educational resources that transform communities, open minds, and promote inclusion and diversity; and

WHEREAS, libraries, librarians, library workers, and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Anthony R. Moyer, Mayor of the City of Harrington, do hereby proclaim the week of April 8-14, 2018 as National Library Week in the City of Harrington and encourage all citizens to visit the library, explore what is new, and engage with your librarian because Libraries Transform.
